How does it work?

- You have one Language Futures session after school each week
- You choose the language
- The teacher plans a project
- You learn how to learn a language (so that you could learn any language at any stage in your life) with flashcards, games, websites, teaching etc

Language Futures

- You also work with a native speaker/ mentor/ volunteer and you can use dictionaries
- You can build your language into your daily life

Language Futures

Which language?

- A language you speak and understand but do not read or write
- A language someone in your family speaks
- A language a pupil in the school speaks
- A language you just like the sound of
- A language that at least one other student in the group is also learning
- A language spoken in a country you have been to or are interested in

Why do children like it?

- We enjoy having many different languages in one classroom
- We like learning more independently
- We feel valued and trusted as learners
- We learn from each other

What next?

- Take a letter and application form from Mrs Roberts
- Talk about it at home
- Complete the form and hand it in to the office by Friday next week.
- We will let you know by the end of half term if your application is successful.
- Language Futures starts after half term.
