

Let's have fun...

Let's Watch...

Watch You Tube - Old Macdonald Had A Farm

Can you join in with the singing? Can your mum/dad/brothers or sisters sing it too?

Let's remember...

Can you remember what animals were in the song? How many did you remember?

Can you think of any other animals that could be in the song?

Can you remember what sounds the animals made?

Let's Imagine...

Pretend to pick up your binoculars.

Look up, look down, look from side to side.

Imagine you are at the farm.

What can you see?

Do you know the name of that animal? Is it big or small? What noise does it make? What can you hear? What does it like to eat? Is there more than 1 of the animal? Are there any baby animals?

Let's draw...

Draw a picture of the animal you saw.

Let's write...

Remember to put your name on your picture.

You can copy it.

Use the Read Write Inc formation rhymes to help you form your letter shapes correctly.

(These are on this website too – read write inc flashcards)

Let's play I Spy...

Play the I Spy game below.

What can you see in the picture?

Count how many you found?

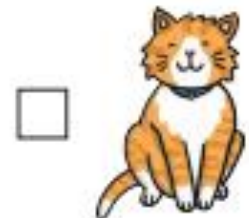

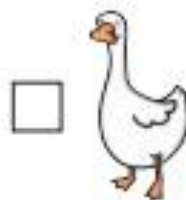

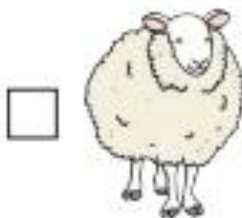

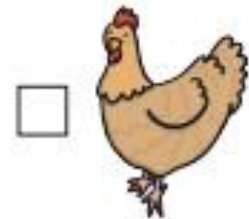

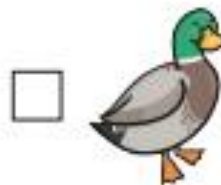

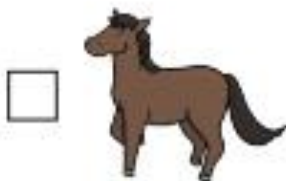

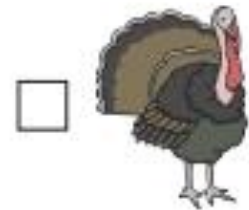

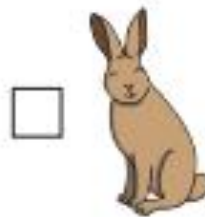

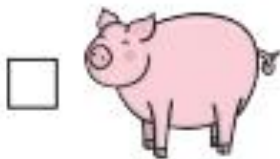

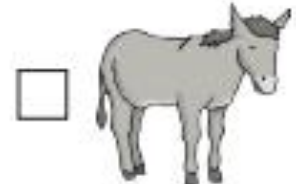

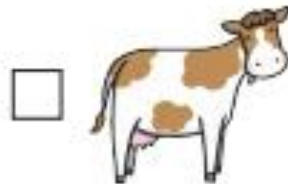

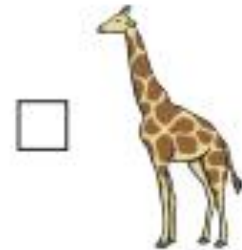

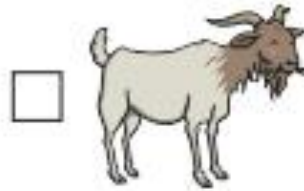

Did you spy any of the farm animals from the Old Macdonald song?

One of the animals does not belong on the farm. Can you spot the "odd one out"??
